I rely on this HDMI extender for our digital signage

"These super extenders have performed remarkably well. They are put in place for distances ranging from 100 feet through 260 feet."

BloodCenter

Great product

"DP to HDMI adapter cable – great product for old computers converting to smart TV with HDMI ports!"

rward88
Mount Vernon

Worked great for our application

"Used this product for 3 camera feeds and 1 computer output on 4-up display. We tried a different, lower-cost 4x1 but it did not perform with lower resolution. Switched to Tripp Lite and everything works!"

MnMoondog
Minneapolis, MN

Outstanding product, great price

"Outstanding product. Battery was fully charged right out of the box. Can truly see a difference and hear a difference in my audio video equipment. Backup works perfectly."

Michael
Verified Buyer

Easy peasy...works like a charm

"Very simple product to use. Easy to connect. Works great. Priced well."
